June 2008:

Enjoy already the early summer!

During the month of June the national part surrounding Cala Joncols presents itself from the best side. The olive blossom spreads its sweet smell and some feasts will be celebrated - San Juan – one of the renowned ones will be celebrated with a big bonfire on the beach and a beach party. (Dates will be between the 16th and 23rd of June 2008)

During the 1st week of June – we will organize a special Rebreather Test for our guests – for more information you can contact Jan Boelen Diving base - Euro-Divers Spain - Cala Joncols

July 2008

Photo seminar with Peter Ryngaert!

Already last year we had the pleasure to have Peter with us for a digital photo seminar with digital photo development held at Cala Joncols and we will offer this special seminar again during the first two weeks of July 2008. Secure your places already now as the seminar is free of charge for guest of the Hotel Cala Joncols. The best picture will again receive nice prizes.

August 2008

Summer, sun, holiday and much more.....

Summer, sun and holidays in Spain – Attention children and youngsters – if your parents have both booked a dive package in advance – you will receive 50% discount on your dive package or diving course (without course material and certification costs – prices according to the locally valid pricelist!)
Minimum age for children diving: 8 years!

September 2008

Dive- Special and wine testing offered once a week!

During the month of September we will offer once a week a special wine testing of wines from the region to our hotel guests – small delights from the Spanish kitchen – like the Spanish ham will of course not be missing on this event.

And another SPECIAL:

Juan Martinez will be holding again his special UW-biology seminar from the 15th to the 20th of September – Juan has already been with Euro-Divers Egypt and also with us in Spain – his seminars are not only very informative; Juan is just the perfect combination of enthusiast, diver and biologist – his engagement and wisdom is contagious!!
